

Brief Profile of Sudhir Gupta

Sudhir has extensive professional experience of over 40 years. He completed his Electrical Engineering degree from MS University Baroda and started his career as at the Bhabha Atomic Research Centre. He then moved to industry and has held senior positions in leading organizations like DCM Data Systems, Uptron and Honeywell. Subsequently he was Chief Operating Officer at Airtel MP and later Director Software Development Engineering at Comverse. Later he also worked at Drishtee a social sector enterprise. Presently he is supporting social sector organizations and startups working in the area of clean energy, agriculture and water. His recent activities include.

- Mentor Millennium Alliance, Innovation & Business Acceleration Centre Kolkata.
- Member of the External Investment Committee at the INVENT Social Incubation Program at IIT Kanpur.
- Member of jury panel for Innovate India TV shows broadcast on DD National and Zee Business.
- Member of jury panel for Villgro iPitch, India Innovation Growth Program 2.0
- Project appraisal for funding for shortlisted proposals for Millennium Alliance and India- Rwanda Innovation Growth Program.
- Evaluator - Millennium Alliance, India Innovation Growth Program, Global R&D Awards, XLR8 AP, Smart India Hackathon 2018 and India - Ethiopia Innovation & Technology Commercialization Programme
- Contributor LinkedIn Pulse, NASSCOM Communities, Medium, BW Disrupt and GitHub.
- Workshop/Lecture on Mobile App Development, IOT, Alexa, Machine Learning and Rural Development - JSS Academy, Jamia Millia Islamia, Dronacharya College, Chitkara University, Amity University, IES University Bhopal and GLA University Mathura.